

A Weekend of Programs at Society Hill Synagogue

April 9-11, 2010

The growing crisis in

HUNGER

What can we do?

Did you know ...

- Last year in Philadelphia, one in five homes with a baby or toddler did not have enough food.
- One of every dozen young children was outright hungry, a rate that was twice as high as the year before.
- Nearly half of the food pantries in Philadelphia had to turn away people last year because they ran out of food.

Why is this happening? What is being done about it?
What can we do at Society Hill Synagogue?

Please join us on April 9-11

as we hear from some of the most knowledgeable and active Philadelphians in hunger relief, participate in a hunger awareness meal, share our perceptions and ideas, consider future SHS initiatives against hunger, and visit a food distribution center. It will be an experience you won't soon forget.

More information on the weekend's activities is available at our website: www.societyhillsynagogue.org or contact the SHS office at (215) 922-6590 or office@societyhillsynagogue.org. To participate in the Saturday lunch experience, please register in advance. $8 per adult/$4 per child.

This program is supported, in part, by a grant from the Kehillah of Center City, Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia.
